Constable Herman Strong Leading up to Election Filing

Experience, endorsements and fundraising are keys to victory

Constable Mark Herman has filed for election in Harris County's Republican Party Primary. A 30-year veteran of the Precinct 4 Constable's Office, Herman was unanimously appointed by Harris County Commissioners Court on May 19th. He now has the endorsement of all commissioners and the county judge in his race.

State Senator Paul Bettencourt, Sheriff Ron Hickman, numerous state representatives, republican precinct chairs and community leaders have endorsed Herman. "I'm humbled by the vast support I have received," Herman said.

The Constable began his career as a deputy for former Constable Dick Moore, who has also endorsed him.

"I owe my success as a law enforcement professional to Constable Moore and Sheriff Hickman", stated Herman. "They believed in me through the years, giving me increased responsibilities and experience that I now use to run the department." Precinct 4 is the largest constable office in the nation.

Fundraising has exceeded all early goals. "With well over $200 thousand dollars on hand and another major event scheduled in December, we are on track to have a substantial budget from which to operate," said Herman. "My experience, endorsements and fundraising are the result of decades of support from the residents of Precinct 4."
